

IMPROVING SAFETY FOR OUR CHILDREN: MANDATORY REPORTING OF CHILD ABUSE

Provided by Diane Payne, Director - Justice for Native Children

January 27, 2012

Location: Kluti-Kaah Hall
Time: 8:30 am – 12:30 pm

Who Should Attend?

Anyone who is required under Alaska or Federal law to report child abuse

What will be covered?

- ★ Federal & State Laws on Mandatory Reporting of Child Abuse
- ★ Signs of Physical, Emotional and Sexual Abuse
- ★ Effects Of Alcohol & Drug Abuse by Caregivers on Children
- ★ Effects of Domestic Violence on Children
- ★ Helping Children Deal with Abuse Trauma
- ★ Who Reports? Who Do You Report To?
- ★ How & What to Report
- ★ Consequences for Failing to Report Child Abuse

For more information, contact Diane Payne at 907-694-5709 or email dpayne@aksummit.com